"SPECIAL LECTURES BY EXPERTS"

To motivate the students and guide them about various aspects of education apart from regular curriculum, Institution organizes guest lectures by different key note speakers who are expert in their respective fields. Considering the importance of National Educational Policy-2020 in today's educational changes and its prospects; key note address was given by two eminent personalities "Prof. (Dr.) Mohd. Ishtiyaque" and "Dr. Shaukat Ali" in a National Seminar on "NEP-2020: Issues and Challenges". Students got an extensive idea about the New Education Policy and issues and challenges related with the policy. As a result of this lecture, they came to know the structure of education at primary level as well as total educational structure up to higher education level under NEP-2020. To impart the evolution of the educational structure in India since medieval period, the institution organised an extension lecture on "Comparative Education Policy: Medieval and Colonial Period" delivered by Mr. R. B. Azad Chaudhary (Asst. Professor, Hindu College, University of Delhi, New Delhi). The lecture enhanced the understanding about the historical development of education system during the medieval and colonial period. The institution also organised an extension lecture to sensitize the students about gender equality. The extension lecture on "Gender Sensitization and Women Empowerment" given by Ms. Salma Khatoon (DARC Fellow, Delhi Assembly, New Delhi). To develop professionalism among students, a lecture on "Professional Development" was given by Mr. Md. Abul Farah. It was organized with motive of developing professional qualities in students. "Dr. Anand Mohan Jha" and "Dr. Arun Kumar Chaudhary" was invited to give key note address on "Challenges to sustain Education in Covid" to raise the awareness about covid-19 and how to make the teaching viable for the students.

"BOOK READING"

The power of a book lives in its power to turn a solitary act into a shared vision. Institution is committed to inspire creativity and foster camaraderie among students and encourage them to think critically about what they read in an academic, non-academic and non-competitive environment. The faculty members as a team strive to organize various activities to instil love for reading and to generate excitement of books.

These activities help readers to indulge in their hobby of reading by meeting like-minded individuals, by introducing them to new genres and by exposing them to other reading opportunities. It is truly said that books leave us with many experiences; we will several lives while reading.

"Books are a uniquely portable magic"

The purpose of the Book reading and discussion is to interpret and describe the significance of your findings in light of what was already known about the research problem being investigated, and to explain any new understanding or fresh insights about the problem after you've taken the findings into consideration. The discussion will always connect to the introduction by way of the research questions or hypotheses you posed and the literature you reviewed. Book reading and reading strengthens the brain that enhances empathy and build vocabulary.

Considering all these points; Institute organized a student-lecture on "Reading and Reflection on Textbooks" by Ms. Shalini Roy and Mr. Shahbaz Reza to motivate the students to develop reading habits. Also, an extension lecture on "How to Develop Reading Habits" delivered by Mr. Ramchandra Sahu, (Retd. Librarian, Samastipur College, Samastipur) was organized. The lectures delivered promoted development of good reading habits among the students and the reflection on core elements or school text books with respect to gender, environment and health issues.

The institute also provides opportunities to students to reflect and review the policies like NCF, NPE etc. Not only on book reading; Institute boost the reading of narrative texts, autobiographies, biographies and ethnographical texts. It motivates the learners to read regularly. Institute assures that students studying under its shelter get best of everything and it promises to provide every possible opportunity to their students.

“WORKSHOP ON IMPORTANCE OF COMMUNICATION IN EFFECTIVE TEACHING SKILLS”

Workshop on communication skills was held from 05.02.2020 to 07.02.2020. The purpose was to give students one to one practical experience with various aspects of language usage.

Day 1

On 05.02.2020 session was started by Prof. (Dr.) Syed Azam Hussain, Head, Department of English, A.N.S. College, Baarh. He delivered a key note address on the use of English Language in Effective Teachings. The students were told difference between functional use of the language and the grammatically correct English. Prof. Hussain further elaborated that there is excessive use of slang words in the English speaking. In the second session conducted by Prof. Hussain the students were asked to find one word each that they thought can be used in daily life. Enthusiasm of the students was good which led to nearly more than 50 new vocabulary words.

The third session focused on the writing skill. Initially, students were given few sentences for paraphrasing which initiated them to look for synonymous and the same familiarized them with different sentence structures. And also, they were asked to list down connectors. After the completion and discussion on first two tasks, students were given briefing on how to write short story, creative essay and the same was given as home assignment.

Day 02

In the second day of the workshop the session was started by Dr. Anand Mohan Jha, Principal, U.R. College, Rosera. He delivered key note address on the Effective Communication in Teaching. He insisted that Language is just the medium of communication and one must not feel shy in using various language in communicating the idea. In later session of the second day of the workshop, the students, in continuation, came up with interesting piece of writings and were given the chance to read out which was followed by exchange of ideas, strengths and weaknesses. Many interesting facts and ideas were exchanged. Since, we kept the environment informal for the session two, encouraged free flow of communication. Furthermore, students listed all new words they learnt. This session exposed them to different styles of writings which could be easily incorporated in their daily lives.

Day 03

On third day of the workshop the key note address was delivered by Mr. Md. Abul Farah, Director, A. Y. International School, Khanpur, Samastipur. He also focused on effective communication in teaching-learning methodology. Considering the fact that we were having a workshop on communication skills, it becomes mandatory to acquaint the students with phonetic transcription. Students were informed essentials of good pronunciation along with division of sounds into consonants and vowel sounds. They participated enthusiastically leading to mentioning of common errors when it comes to spoken English. The workshop was concluded after giving them a task to rectify their own pronouncing mistakes.
